

Why Hire A Wedding Planner/Coordinator?

Call Ready, Set, Go! at (707) 468-0213 or email dottie@rdysetgo.com to schedule for a one hour free wedding consultation. During this hour, we will review your thoughts and plans for your upcoming wedding.

You have just become engaged ... now the planning and worries start ... Ready, Set, Go! Wedding Planner/Coordinator can take those worries away so you can focus on the excitement of planning your special day.

As you begin to think about your wedding, you may become confused and anxious ... how much to spend, what special services are needed and where to obtain those services, what is important when choosing a wedding site, what vendors will be needed and how to choose vendors. AND how much will it all cost?

After the excitement of becoming engaged wears off and the reality of planning your special day sets in, you may become overwhelmed with all the details involved (and many more that you haven't even begun to consider). You will become faced with decisions about everything from invitation wording to planning their honeymoon.

Ready, Set, Go! Wedding Planner is experienced in negotiating contracts with caterers, wedding sites, florists, and the myriad of other services you will need. Ready, Set, Go! will save you valuable time and money and help you turn your dreams into a reality.

Ready, Set, Go! Wedding Planner will not make decisions for you but rather will guide and assist you in making informed decisions. Our training, knowledge, and experience will turn your dreams and expectations into reality. Our goal is to help you to host a beautiful and distinctive event which you can enjoy and be memorable years down the road.

Ready, Set, Go! Wedding Planner is also your Wedding Coordinator. Remember, not all wedding planners are wedding coordinators. And not all wedding coordinators are wedding planners. Ready, Set, Go! is both.
